

Effective Team Management

Duration 1 day

Target Audience

This one-day course is for people managers and supervisors, or those looking to progress to these levels.

Course Description

This course equips managers and supervisors with the necessary skills to identify, recruit, motivate, manage and retain workers in food manufacturing/processing environments.

Learning Outcomes

At the end of this course, the learner will:

- Understand the theories of management
- Understand the process of recruitment and selection of staff
- Understand how to motivate and retain staff
- Know how to get the best out of staff
- Know how to deal with conflicts
- Know how to manage training and development

Assessment - Assessment of the delegate's progress is by classroom-based workshops

Certification/Accreditation - CPD